Dear Grandmother

December 2nd

I wish you a very good Christmas.
I have a present for you, but it might not get to you until your birthday. It is well worth waiting for.

Things have been in a state of change in me these days. Sometimes things are good sometimes not. My eyes are still not right so I'm taking Vitamins and going to see the eye doctor next week.

It is snowing to night for the 1st time this year - there is snow all over the ground and it's really quiet and beautiful.

Have you heard from mother? Since she wrote me that perfectly horrible letter, I haven't heard from her. Maybe she needs somebody to feel hostile towards. I wish she'd pick somebody else.

I am getting along quite well with the people here. If I felt just a little better, I could improve things a lot. But I suppose time will solve things and I believe in my strength.

Please give my love to Dora and people.
I think I'll go to bed, it's late.

Much love

Justine
